War Bulletin.

The famous ships of proud Japan,
Steamed forth to fight when war began;
The sunburst gleaming red and white
Upon their flags in morning light.
The great Mikado's mighty host,
Swept down upon their foeman's coast;
Defying fleet and fort and town,
And Russia's battle ships went down;
And after having won the day,
Assailed them and then sailed away.

The Japanese sail was where the Russian ships went down, but OSGOOD'S great sale is where prices go down—so low it will almost need a grappling iron to find them.

Osgood's Mammoth Money Saving Sale, commences Monday, March 7—4 days only. War on big profits, prices gone to the bottom. A bargain bombardment—to keep business booming, cost blown to bits by a trade torpedo. A regular March massacre and spring surrender. Furniture, Carpets, Draperies and China.

For prices and particulars, for details and daring discounts see daily papers. Remember this is our only Annual Spring Clearance. This is Greater Boston's Greatest Bargain Sale. Profits obliterated; cost not considered, and one year credit if you want it—the limit of liberality and fair dealing.

What the Boston Traveller of May 29, says:—

The piece comes back with all its jewels touched up and a prince of a new one in the song and chorus, "DOWN WHERE THE CONGO FLOWS." It is perhaps enough said of this new song to state that it fell in with the other gems as natural as a perfect setting. It received a rousing reception.

Ask Any Actor

SOME of the most successful portrayals of Old Men have been by young, good-looking actors. By the use of a little grease paint they add wrinkles and pallor; a little putty makes an ugly nose of a straight one.

They wash off the years with the putty and the paint.

By my methods REAL Wrinkles are taken off as easily—and they don't come back. Noses that are ill-shapen are REALLY straightened and made fine.

I've been doing this work for thirty-four years. Doesn't it seem worth while to ASK me about it? That costs nothing.

SETTLE SOFA

We are entirely willing to be responsible for your decision; but the harder task is to be responsible for your indecision. That you must undertake.

For when we offer this Settle Sofa, fully upholstered, with French curved sides and massive claw feet, at a Canal Street price of only $35, it borders on the sensational, but it is only a fair sample of the opportunities to be found in our new 1904 stock.

The seat is very deep and the whole effect is that of extreme comfort. The covering is in dark green, which is brought out into fine relief by the rich mahogany color of the frame.

"The Burglar."

The Castle Square Theatre management has arranged an elaborate production of Augustus Thomas' adaptation of the story by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, "Editha's Burglar," called in this dramatic version simply "The Burglar" as the attraction at this theatre next week. It will be remembered that Mr. Thomas first prepared a short sketch for the stage from the story so interestingly told by Mrs. Burnett, and subsequently this sketch was elaborated to make the play announced for next week. The remarkable experiences of the child, Editha, are all retained in Mr. Thomas' play and the story of the book has been enlarged upon very skilfully in this dramatic creation.

The performances of "The Burglar" are for a single week and there will be the usual distribution of boxes of chocolate bonbons at the Monday matinee.

UMBRELLAS

The gift umbrella needs to look well, to begin with, and its wearing qualities must correspond. Depend on these sorts for all that's good in an umbrella, and choose from a superb collection of styles. From substantial umbrellas at $1, for men and women, to beautiful ones at $25.
